The batch of 228 participants was placed in 43 companies. 16 people opted out of autumn's process, for finding their own internships.

Overall the trend seems to still pick the best and the brightest and the participating companies were satisfied with their experience.

The concept of the FMCG and FMCD cluster was repeated for this Autumn's too and the overall recruiter experience was positive.

The Information Management and Operations batches saw a huge numbers being picked by e-commerce companies and marketing was as usual ruled by FMCG/FMCD recruiter.
