

SPJIMR Mumbai Admissions 2015-17: MBA admission shortlist released

By Anisha Jenyfer Solomon | Monday, March 11, 2015 | Source: prepsure.com

S.P Jain Institute of Management and Research (SPJIMR), has released the shortlist of MBA admissions to 2015-17 academic year. Earlier, SPJIMR had announced the eligibility criteria for its management programs. The institute has considered the CAT, XAT and GMAT scores for admission to its management programmes.

CAT: Candidates who have overall score of 85 percentile and 70 percentile on sectional basis are eligible to take admission at SPJIMR institute.

XAT: Candidates who have overall score of 85 percentile and 70 percentile on sectional basis are eligible to take admission at SPJIMR institute.

GMAT: Candidates who have overall score of 650 are eligible to take admission at SPJIMR institute.

Final selection of candidates is based on the interview which is scheduled to be held in the February 2015, interview dates may vary according to the cities. Candidates may visit the official website for more information.

About SPJIMR:

S.P. Jain Institute of Management and Research (SPJIMR) is a constituent of the Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan and is recognised as one of the elite B- schools of India. The Institute grew rapidly in Mumbai from 1981 to one of the top ten B-schools in the country by 1994-1995.