

Happenings @SPJIMR

So long, Farewell!

SPJIMR staff and faculty bid adieu to the PGDM Class of 2020. The outgoing batch, all set to embark on their corporate journey, reminisced about their 2 years stay at SPJIMR with emotional speeches, accompanied by a lot of fun and laughter.

Check out more pictures here

It's time for the DOCC rural internship programme

237 SPJIMR's PGDM students have travelled to rural parts of India and abroad to interact, work and learn from social development pioneers at the grassroots level.

Read more

Holi hai!

SPJIMR students across programmes celebrated the festival of colours with great gusto on campus on March 10th.

More pictures are here

Women's Day Celebration

Gender equality and women empowerment were the dominant themes in the campus on March 5th and 6th as SPJIMR celebrated the International Women's Day 2020 with great vigour and enthusiasm.

#UnleashTheChildInYou

Read more and check out more pictures

Ehsaas - The NGO Mela

Students, faculty and staff turned up in large numbers to shop for a cause at the annual NGO mela organised by the DoSU committee.

Read More

Unstereotype 2020

7 speakers inspired SPIMR through their life stories which broke down societal stereotypes, promoted inclusion and gender equality, and made a difference!

Read More

Sargam 2020

Music and dance was the theme of the institute on the evening of February 10th as SPJIMR students and faculty witnessed many spectacular performances as part of Sargam2020, the annual flagship music and dance night, organized by the Cultural Committee of SPJIMR. The theme for this year's edition was NAVARASA - A Journey Through Nine Emotions, explored through a fusion of Indian and Western performing arts.

Watch the programme here

GASP 2020

GASP, a 17-year-old legacy of the SPJIMR's annual theatre production of the Guild of Actors, presented "PARCHHAI", a play based on expectations and learnings of life depicted through a group of friends. The chief guest of the evening was the National Award winning actress, Mrs. Rajeshwari Sachdev, and the founders of "Out of Box" production, Mr. Abhishek Pattnaik and Mr. Suketu Shah as special guests.

Awards & Recognition

SPJIMR Dean, Dr. Ranjan Banerjee, was awarded the "Change Maestro and Institution Builder of the Year" at the Industry Academia Conference 2020 (ICA) by a jury of eminent academics and corporate leaders convened by Padmashri Dr Pritam Singh and P Dwarkanath, Director, Human Capital, Max Group India and Director, GSK.

Read More

Book Publications

SHAPERS OF BUSINESS INSTITUTIONS

Authored by SPJIMR faculty, this is a book series of six volumes that explores the shaping of long-standing Indian business organizations, that have withstood the test of time and grown exponentially since the economic liberalization in 1991 to become institutions in their own right.

Check out the Books

Dr. Ranjan Banerjee

Dean's Corner

"SPJIMR is much more than the sum of its stakeholders. There is a spirit of goodness, caring and collaboration which we all feel at different times, and on our better days, it enables us to bring our best to work. We are a young institute. We will continue to get better. There is so much more to improve. We will do it together."

Upcoming Events

Convocation

17th April

SPJIMR Day

17th April

Samavesh

15th-16th May

Know Your Colleague

Prof. Sunny Arora

1. Favourite Book: Game Theory by Morton D. Davis
2. Favourite Song: Tujhe Dekha to ye jaana sanam
3. Favourite Holiday Spot: Bali
4. Favourite movie: Dilwale Dulhania le Jayenge
5. Role Model: Shah Rukh Khan
6. One lesser known fact: Fussy about what he eats

Reach out to us at: centralcommunications@spjimr.org

