

Mitthi Jyoti Sharma

Overview:

Curious by nature | Diligent by practice |
Researcher by choice
3rd year FPM Scholar | Member of
SPectacular film club (SPJIMR)
Feel free to write to me if you are confused about your career!

Area of specialization:

Organisational Behaviour and Human Resource Management

Year of joining the programme:

November 2020

Email: fpm20.mitthi@spjimr.org

Educational background:

NET (LS), PG Diploma in Data Science,
PG Diploma in Human Resource Management and Masters in Commerce

Research interest:

Career Management and Social network analysis

Professional appointments/ Work experience:

Assistant Professor in Department of Commerce, Mount Carmel
College, Bengaluru (13 months)

Publications and working papers:

Authored a magazine article: Is Big Hit Entertainment manufacturing talent? A case study on developing successful talent in the K-Pop culture from Korea and beyond (September 2020, HR Future)
Contributed to the Case Study “BTS, K-Pop and Hallyu: Creating Waves Softly” by Dr. Tulsi Jayakumar (October 2021, Ivey Publishing)

Conference presentations:

Presented paper titled “Who discriminates?” at International Conference on Network Science in Management, IIM-A in December 2022.

Achievements:

Successfully completed course work and Comprehensive Qualifying Exam with A+ grade (August 2022)