5B Grievance Redressal mechanism for Faculty, staff and students

The institute has a Grievance Redressal Committee which can be reached at grc@spjimr.org.

If a student wishes to express a grievance about another participant or a faculty or staff member, he/she may discuss the grievance with the Grievance Redressal Committee or the Programme Chairperson. The Committee or the Programme Chairperson, in consultation with the Dean shall review the complaint and decide how it should be addressed.

Students can represent all their academic problems to their Manager-Programme and all administrative problems to the Manager-Administration. In case the problem is out of their purview, it is placed before the grievance cell, which can make suitable recommendations to the Dean.

The Dean is the final authority in redressal of all grievances.

Spacious classrooms have been built with high end technologies for student and faculty teaching-learning experience. The new Library (space) provides study facilities, plus access to specialist business books, journals and online resources alongside specialist facilities such as a Bloomberg trading room. The long opening hours and café next to it make it a comfortable and convenient place to study.

Students have access to computers in the computer campus, wireless networks across Bhavan's campus. There are other facilities like hostel rooms, night canteen facilities, health and wellbeing facilities, access to ATM and Bank in the campus, membership to sports and recreation facilities and a gymnasium.

15F Teaching Learning Process

The goal of the curriculum development and management process at the School is to attain higher levels of quality in faculty-student interactions. The process at the School is guided by Programme Teams for each respective Degree Programme. Across programmes, curriculum is managed in multiple stages and engages several constituents.

The programmes have adequate measures to ensure that Masters level learning is achieved. These include:

1. Feedback Mechanisms for the courses
 - a) The students provide qualitative and quantitative feedback on every course. This feedback is reviewed by the programme and shared with the teaching faculty.
 - b) Every year the feedback is taken from Industry members during the advisory board meetings.
 - c) Feedback from the Alumni is also taken in meetings conducted with the programme team.
2. Curriculum Review
 - a) Curriculum is reviewed by the programme team every year and modified as needed.
 - b) Each of the Areas also have an Area Advisory Council comprising industry representatives, alumni and faculty. The council meets once in a year to review the curriculum and make modifications as needed.
3. Focused Group Feedback comprising the faculty concerned & Area Chairs
 - a) Discussion with ACADCOM participants, a students' academic body, also sharing the course outlines with area chairs for their suggestions for course credits/sessions from the area.
4. Bench-marking of the curriculum with National and International Business schools
 - a) Bench marking based on parameters such as area wise courses, number of hours, and credits.
5. AoL (Assurance of Learning) Process
 - a) All courses and their assessments are mapped with the Programme Learning Goals / Learning Objectives
 - b) For AOL mapped courses, the learning of the students is measured and reviewed with the faculty and area heads in the closing the loop meetings. The recommendations for improvement are decided during the same meeting.
 - c) Introduction of new courses or topics by mapping existing curriculum with Programme LG/LO
6. Programme Academic council:
 - a) Academic committee comprises the School's senior administration and faculty representatives. This body provides guidance and supervision to academic matters of the programme.

All matters related to curriculum design, academic policies, assessment etc. are presented to the committee for approval.
